What is Tri-M? Tri-M is a National Honor Society for music programs. The purpose of this organization is to promote music in the public school setting as well as the community and to function as a service organization.

What type of activities will there be? The Nixa chapter #894 is still a very new organization and it is the desire for it to grow as an organization. One of the main activities will be tutoring younger musicians for the Nixa school district. However, the activities that will be undertaken will be determined by you the members. What the organization can do is limitless.

Is there a cost? There is a cost of $10. This amount covers our yearly dues to the national office and also provides some funding for other activities and items.

What do I have to do to become a member? If you were a provisional member last year, you simply have to fill out a new membership form. If you were not, you will need to get a provisional membership form and follow the instructions given.

Are there officers? The officer positions are President, President-Elect, Treasurer, and Secretary. Duties include running of meetings, organizing activities, and initiating new events. The positions will alternate between band and choir from year to year.

Who is the faculty sponsor? Your faculty contact person is either the instrumental or vocal music teacher.
